

IL VIGNONE IGT TOSCANA

IL VIGNONE is an expression of a captivating blend of Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. The vineyard is located within the Fontecornino Estate, a very cool area that gives sharpness of aromas and depth. A wine of overall completeness made of aromatic and gustatory finesse, sip size and blend balance.

Variety: Merlot - Cabernet Sauvignon - small percentage of Petit Verdot depending on the vintage

Type of soil: Sandy clay with presence of fossil matrix

Altitude: 400 - 450 m slm

Exposure: East

System of growth: Spurred cordon

Plant density: 4'500 vines per hectare

Average vine age: 18 years

Average production: 45 q/ha

Harvest method: Manual in boxes followed by secondary selection in sorting tables, also by hand

Fermentation: Partial crushing of the berries, fermentation separated vats in low controlled temperature and time of maceration different on each variety

Aging: 12 months in separated tonneaux and barrels for each variety, followed by 6 months together in barrel and concrete before the bottle

N. bottles produced on average: 12.000 - 15.000

First vintage: 2015

Size: 750 ml - 1.500 ml

Aging potential: Over 15 years